Alumni sought for “Where are they now?” series

Huntington – Attention Gateway Alumni! We are reviving a series of articles, led in the early 2000’s by alum and then Gateway teacher Janine Modestow, called “Gateway Alumni: Where Are They Now?”

A brief, online survey has been set up for any who are interested in taking part. You can find the link on the Gateway website (www.grsd.org) under “quick links” or on the Gateway Regional MA Alumni Facebook page.

Those selected for the series will view a draft of their profile before it is published on the Alumni Facebook page, in local media and in Gateway’s weekly e-newsletter, Breaking News. We will request a head shot (selfies are fine!) to accompany each article.

Everyone else: look for highlights from our alumni, coming soon!
