Save the date for The Last 5 Years at Gateway!

Huntington- In the mood for an incredible musical production? Look no further! Gateway Regional High school students Margaret Rock and Dawson Atkin will be putting on a fantastic performance of Jason Robert Brown's musical, The Last Five Years, one night only on January 12, 2018 at 7 p.m. in the Gateway Performing Arts Center. The production is accompanied by Parker Atkin on piano. Don't miss out!

The storyline, as explained by Dawson Atkin, follows. "The Last Five Years is a musical by Jason Robert Brown. It tells the story of a marriage from the time the characters meet until their divorce. The show uses alternating solos and two duets to do so. The catch? Jamie, the man, tells his story in chronological order, but Cathy presents hers in reverse, starting after the collapse of their relationship and ending at their first meeting. The show is a work of genius that shows what theatre can be."

Admission to the show is free, with donations accepted at the door for the Gateway Education Foundation.

We hope to see you on January 12 for this amazing performance!
