Holiday concerts at Gateway

Huntington – Musicians at Gateway Regional Middle School and High School will present holiday concerts soon!

The Middle School concert will start at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, December 11 in the Gateway Performing Arts Center. This concert is free of charge and will feature the middle school jazz band, 7/8 grade choir, 5th grade band, 6th grade band and the 7/8 grade band. A bake sale fundraiser will be held at intermission, along with a poinsettia raffle.

High school musicians take the stage on Thursday, December 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the Gateway Performing Arts Center. Admission is $2, or $1 with a canned good food item for the Huntington Food Pantry. Performers include the high school jazz band, concert band, concert choir and show choir, who will all perform winter-themed music. A choral quartet will also perform.

The choirs will be selling cloth grocery bags and beef jerky sticks at both concerts.
