Save the date for Annual Holiday Brunch and Concert!

Huntington - The Gateway Regional School District invites area residents, ages fifty-five and over, to attend this year's holiday event on Wednesday, December 6, 2017. Doors will open at 9:15 a.m. and admission is free to all senior citizens living in the Gateway hilltowns.

A brunch will be served in the Gateway cafeteria at 9:30 a.m. and guests are then invited to attend a holiday concert in the Gateway Performing Arts Center beginning at 10:30 a.m. The concert will feature festive holiday music performed by students from the middle school, and senior high school.

Parking will be available in the main parking lot in front of Gateway Regional High School on 12 Littleville Rd.

Residents are asked to RSVP to their town's Council on Aging (COA) representative by November 29: Margit Mikuski, 848-4279, ext. 400 (Blandford); COA Reservation line, 862-6205 (Russell); Suzanne Lemieux, 623-2352 (Middlefield); Kat Peterson, 512-5205 (Huntington); Sue Kucharski, 354-7735 (Chester); and Anne-Marie Buikus, 862-3257 (Montgomery).

The snow date will be Thursday, December 7 at the same times.

Hope to see you there!
