A large body of research indicates that a guaranteed and viable curriculum is the most important factor in improving achievement.

- Guaranteed means that what is the intended, taught, and assessed curriculum are the same.
- Viable means that standards in the curriculum can be learned in the time available.