FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Wendy V. Long, Public Relations
(413) 685-1003

Area seniors invited to holiday brunch, concert

Huntington — A reminder to senior citizens in the Gateway hilltowns: Gateway’s annual brunch and concert will be held at the high school on Wednesday, December 6. Doors open at 9:15 a.m.; brunch will be served from 9:30 – 10:30 a.m., and a holiday concert will take place from 10:30 to noon in the Gateway Performing Arts Center.

The brunch will feature vegetable quiche, sausage patties, fresh fruit salad, and honey buns, with coffee, tea and orange juice. National Honor Society members will greet guests, serve brunch and serve as ushers for the concert.

Performers will include the Gateway choirs and bands, including Show Choir, Concert Choir, Jazz Band and Concert Band. Littleville Elementary School students will also provide a special performance during the concert. Choir students will perform Minka (a traditional Russian sleighride song); White is in the Winter Night (16th century traditional Celtic); Over the River and Through the Woods (American traditional); and Let it Snow! Let it Snow!, a pop traditional winter holiday song. A high school show choir quartet will also sing Falling Snow, by Mark Burrows.

This event is free to all area senior citizens, who should RSVP by contacting their town Council on Aging, or by calling Wendy Long at Gateway (413.685-1003).

###