Gateway Middle School puts on “Hansel and Gretel”

Huntington - Gateway’s 6th-8th graders are proud to present their production of the musical rendition of Hansel and Gretel. The show will be on Friday, March 6th, and Saturday, March 7th, starting at 6:30 p.m. in the Gateway Performing Arts Center at 12 Littleville Road in Huntington.

The story follows a brother and sister, Hansel and Gretel who are kidnapped by a witch who lives in a house made of gingerbread, candy, and many other sweets. The two children have to figure out how to escape the witch and all her tricks and schemes in this exciting adventure.

Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for children.

Questions may be directed to Jeanne LeClair (413) 685-1003 or jleclair@grsd.org.

###